

IT Cabinet Configuration

RM7 - 42 - 60 / 100 - G V Y U A - 3 0 4 - H

Configuration Parameters

|                 |    |                                                                                                           |
|-----------------|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Height          | 42 | 42U (1978 mm)                                                                                             |
| Width           | 60 | 600 mm                                                                                                    |
| Depth           | 10 | 1000 mm                                                                                                   |
| Color           | H  | RAL 9005 (black)                                                                                          |
| Bar type        | 0  | L - type of extrusions                                                                                    |
| Front door      | G  | glass door                                                                                                |
| Front door lock | V  | swivel handle, DIN profile, universal key 333                                                             |
| Rear Door       | Y  | Rear panel, single piece (with knockout cable entry) - for RI7, comes with lock options coded U or X only |

|                      |   |                                           |
|----------------------|---|-------------------------------------------|
| Rear Door Lock       | U | Lock for rear panel, universal key        |
| Side panel           | A | 2 side panels, sheet steel, universal key |
| Top and bottom plate | 0 | Standard top and bottom plate (fixed)     |

Configuration Packages

RM7 series control panels are shipped in packages:

RM7 - C0 - 42

RM7 - TB - 60 / 100

RM7 - D0 - 42 / 60 - GYU

RM7 - SP - 42 / 100

General Accessories

No general accessories.

Installed Accessories

No accessories with an assigned position.